

totally speech

gift guide

2023

multi-sensory experience

Regulation plays an important role in language & learning.

Provide multi-sensory experiences
throughout your child's day & allow them to express their likes & dislikes.

multi-sensory experience

1. Nee-Doh Ball

4. 18 QT Hefty Box (our favorite sensory box)

3. Whirly Squigs

2. Seasons Sensory Tubes

5. Star Projector Galaxy Night Light

water play

Water play lends great opportunity to experience cause-effect relationships.

Narrate what your child notices.

Example: “You put the fish in the water. The fish is swimming! You took the fish out of the water. The fish stopped swimming!”

water play

6. Robo Fish

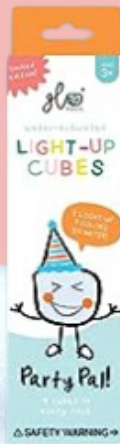

7. Reusable Water Balls

8. Water Wow

9. Glo Pals

10. Mini Bath Bombs

pretend play

Play is an awesome way to support language development.

These toys are great for kiddos who are starting to share physical space & toys with others, collaborate, and expand their pretend play & imagination with or without friends.

pretend play

11. Pretend Pizza

13. Ice Cream Counter

14. Nugget Swag

12. Air Fort

15. Baby Stella

games

Playing traditional board games or pop-up games provides natural opportunities to practice requesting, commenting, and turn-taking.

Does your child struggle with turn-taking? Try playing 1-on-1 with your child before inviting friends to play.

games

16. Pop Up Pirate

18. Toilet Trouble

19. Pop the Pig

17. Shark Bite

20. Zingo

basic concepts

Basic concepts include words that describe, provide location, quantity, time, and feelings. These words are important for following directions and clearly communicating intentions & ideas.

Incorporate basic concepts during play!
Model phrases like:
“Go down”, “He’s mad”, “More animals”

basic concepts

21. Soft Christmas Playset

22. Animals & Igloos

23. Doorbell House

24. Big Feelings Pineapple

25. Spin Again

